Happy New Year, नववर्ष की मंगलकामनाएँ

Dear Devotees,

The Ramayana Centre is pleased to present its annual calendar of 2025, themed 'Dialogues of Śrī Rāma.' Śrī Rāma is engaged in conversations with nearly all the characters in the Ramayana, offering profound values, insights, and teachings. We have selected dialogues with twelve different characters, corresponding to the twelve months of the year.

As we have only 12 sheets on the calendar, we had to limit the dialogues only to 12 characters which have been presented in the order they appear in the Ramcharitmanas.

We pray Bhagwan Rām to guide us on the right path and bless us with His Divine Grace.

1. Śrī Rāma to Vishvamitra : With King Dashrath's permission, Sage Vishvamitra took Śrī Rāma and Lakshman to protect his yagna from demons. Śrī Rāma killed the demoness Tadaka with a single arrow. Consequently, the sage blessed Śrī Rāma and presented him with divine, unfailing weapons. He then began his yajna while Śrī Rāma and Lakshman safeguarded the rituals.

2. Śrī Rāma to Lakshman : Śrī Rāma and Lakshman went to King Janaka's garden to pluck flowers for Sage Vishvamitra's prayers. By divine design, Devi Sita too arrived there to pray to Mata Parvati. When Śrī Rāma saw her, he fell in pure love with her, and shared his feelings with Lakshman.

3. Śrī Rāma to Sage Parshuram : At Devi Sita's swayamvar, Śrī Rāma broke Sri Shiva's Pinak bow. Hearing this, an enraged Sage Parshuram confronted him. Śrī Rāma's calm demeanor and soft words pacified the Sage, who eventually realized Śrī Rāma was none other than Sri Vishnu incarnate.

4. Śrī Rāma to Mata Kaikeyi : Mata Kaikeyi, misled by her maid Manthara, demanded two boons from King Dashrath, first that Bharat be crowned king and second, Śrī Rāma to be exiled for fourteen years. Śrī Rāma accepted her wish unquestioningly, saying it was a son's duty to obey his parents.

5. Śrī Rāma to Mata Kausalya : After Mata Kaikeyi's decree, Śrī Rāma informed his mother, Mata Kausalya, of his exile. She was shocked and shattered but Śrī Rāma consoled her, saying that it was his duty to abide by the command of his father. He then reassured Mata Kausalya that he would return after fulfilling his father's command.

6. Śrī Rāma to King Dashrath : Śrī Rāma, with Devi Sita and Lakshman, sought King Dashrath's blessings before leaving for exile. Heartbroken, Dashrath pleaded with him to stay, but Śrī Rāma alleviated his pain and upheld his duty.

7. Śrī Rāma to Sumantra : Sumantra, King Dashrath's charioteer, escorted Śrī Rāma to the forest till Shringaverpur. Before Śrī Rāma further entered the forest to spend the fourteen years, he beseeched Śrī Rāma to return to Ayodhya with him, as this was King Dashrath's wishes. Śrī Rāma, however, gently declined, emphasizing that it was particularly more important for him to obey his father.

8. Śrī Rāma to Bharat : Bharat, along with Ayodhya's citizens, visited Chitrakoot pleading Sri Ram to return. Bharat had even planned the coronation of Śrī Rāma in Chitrakoot itself, but Śrī Rāma declined. He praised Bharat's virtues and his devotion to dharma.

9. Śrī Rāma to Jatayu : As Ravana abducted Sita, Jatayu fought valiantly to stop him. Seriously injured, Jatayu rushed to Śrī Rāma and informed him of Sita's abduction, before passing away. Śrī Rāma honoured Jatayu's loyalty and sacrifice.

10. Śrī Rāma to Hanuman : During his search for Sita, Śrī Rāma met Hanuman, Sugriv's minister. Recognizing Śrī Rāma as, his Śrī Hanuman bowed down at His lotus feet and pledged that he will remain faithful, loyal and will always devotedly serve Śrī Rāma. He played a pivotal role in helping Śrī Rāma rescue Sita.

11. Śrī Rāma to Sugriva : Śrī Rāma allied with Sugriva as a friend to rescue Sita. He elaborated on the qualities of a true friend and promised to defeat Sugriva's rival, Vali, in exchange for Sugriva's help. After fulfilling his promise, Sugriva mobilized his forces to assist Śrī Rāma.

12. Śrī Rāma to Vibhishan : Vibhishan surrendered to Śrī Rāma after failing to persuade his brother Ravana to return Devi Sita to Śrī Rāma. Despite skepticism from others, Śrī Rāma welcomed him. It highlights the compassionate nature of Śrī Rāma who accepts anyone who comes to His refuge.

At dawn, Śrī Rāma said to Sage Vishwamitra, “You may now perform your sacrifice (Yajna) without any fear of disturbance.” With this reassurance, Sage Vishwamitra together with other sages began offering their oblations into the sacred fire, while Śrī Rāma himself guarded the proceedings of the ritual.

Śrī Rāma to Lakshman
श्री राम-लक्ष्मण संवाद

तात जनकतनया यह सोई। धनुषजग्य जेहि कारन होई ॥
पूजन गौरि सखीं लै आई। करत प्रकासु फिरई फुलवाई ॥ 1-230-1,2 ॥ tāta janakatanayā yaha soī, dhanusajaghya jehi karana hoī pūjana gauri sakhĩ lai īā, karata prakāsu phirai phulavāī

Śrī Rāma said to Lakshman, “Brother, she is none other than the daughter of King Janaka, for whom the great bow-stringing ceremony is being conducted. Accompanied by her maiden attendants, she has come to the garden to worship Goddess Gauri, and as she moves, her radiant presence seems to illuminate everything around her.”

श्री राम-परशुराम संवाद

राम कहा मुनि कहहु बिचारी। रिस अति बड़ि लघु चूक हमारी ॥
छुअतहिं टूट पिनाक पुराना। मैं केहि हेतु करौं अभिमाना ॥ 1-282-7,8 ॥

Rāma kahā muni kahahu bicārī, risa ati baRi laghu cūka hamārī
Chuatahī tūta pināka purānā, maī kehi hetu karaū abhimānā

Śrī Rāma said to the angered Parashurama, “Respected Muni, please reconsider your words. Your anger is immense for such a small mistake of mine. The bow was old, and therefore it broke as soon as it was touched. There is no reason for me to feel proud of such an incident.”

श्री राम-कौसल्या संवाद

पितां दीन्ह मोहि कानन राजू। जहँ सब भाँति मोर बड़ काजू॥

आयसु देहि मुदित मन माता। जेहिं मुद मंगल कानन जाता॥ 2-52-6,7 ॥

Pitā dīnha mohi kānana rājū, jahāṁ saba bhāṭi mora bara kājū āyasu dehi mudita mana mātā, jehīṁ muda mamgala kānana jāta

Śrī Rāma went to Mother Kausalya and said, “Father has granted me the kingdom of the forest, where I will find ample opportunities to grow in every way. Therefore, I request you to grant me your blessings with a joyful heart, so that my journey to the forest may be filled with happiness and divine grace.”

Śrī Rāma aur Sumantra
श्री राम-सुमन्त्र संवाद

धरमु न दूसर सत्य समाना । आगम निगम पुरान बखाना ॥

मैं सोइ धरमु सुलभ करि पावा । तजें तिहूँ पुर अपजसु छावा ॥ 2-94-5,6 ॥

*Dharamu na dūsara satya samānā, āgama nigama purāna bakhānā
Maĩ soi dharamu sulabha kari pāvā, tajẽ tihũ pura apajasu chāvā*

In the forest, Sumantra repeatedly requested Śrī Rāma to return to Ayodhya. In response, Śrī Rāma explained to him, “All the scriptures, mainly the Vedas and Puranas, declare that there is no greater dharma than truth. I have easily and readily embraced this dharma. Abandoning it would bring disgrace to all three worlds.”

Śrī Rāma to Bharat
श्री राम-भरत संवाद

करम बचन मानस बिमल तुम्ह समान तुम्ह तात ।

गुर समाज लघु बंधु गुन कुसमयँ किमि कहि जात ॥ 2-304-0 ॥

Karama bacana mānasa bimala tumha samāna tumha tāta

Gur samāja laghu bandhu guna kusamaya kimi kahi jāta

In Chitrakoot, Śrī Rāma said to Bharat, “O dear brother Bharat, you are pure in your actions, words, and thoughts. There is no one like you in upholding dharma. How can I describe your virtues, my younger brother, in the assembly of our elders, in such difficult times?”

सीता हरतात जनि कहहु पिता सन जाइ।

जों मैं राम त कुल सहित कहहि दसानन आइ ॥ 3-31 ॥

Sītā harata tāta jani kahahu pitā sana jāi

Jauṁ māi rāma ta kula sahita kahihi dāsanana āi

Gīdha deha taji dhari hari rūpā, bhūsana bahu pata pita anūpā

Śrī Rāma requested Jatayu, “Please do not mention Sita's abduction to my father when you meet him in heaven (after your demise). I will slay the ten-headed Ravana and his family, and he himself will recount what happened.”

Śrī Rāma to Hanuman
श्री राम-हनुमान संवाद

कोसलेस दसरथ के जाए । हम पितु बचन मानि बन आए ॥

नाम राम लछिमन दोउ भाई । संग नारि सुकुमारि सुहाई ॥

इहां हरी निसिचर बैदेही । बिप्र फिरहिं हम खोजत तेही ॥ 4-1-1,2 ॥

*Kosalesa dasaratha ke jāe, hama pitu bacana māni bana āe
Nāma rāma lachimana dou bhāi, samga nāri suikumāri suhāi ihā harī nīsicara baidehī, bipra phirahī hama khojata thei*

“We are sons of King Dashrath, the Lord of Kosala, and have come to the forest in obedience to our father’s command. We, the two brothers, are called by the names of Ram and Lakshman. We had with us a pretty and delicate young lady named Janaki, my consort, who is lost in the forest.”

जे न मित्र दुख होहिं दुखारी । तिन्हहि बिलोकत पातक भारी ॥
निज दुख गिरि सम रज करि जाना । मित्रक दुख रज मेरु समाना ॥ 4-6-1,2 ॥

*Je na mitra dukha hohī dukhari, tinhāhī bilokata pataka bhārī
Nija dukha giri sama raja kari jānā, mitraka dukha raja meru samānā*

Śrī Rāma said to Sugriva, "It is a great sin even to glance at those who do not feel troubled when they witness their friend's suffering. A true friend is one who will find his own misery as being trivial as compared to the pains and sufferings of his friend."

Śrī Rāma to Vibhishan
श्री राम-विभीषण संवाद

सगुन उपासक परहित निरत नीति दृढ नेम।

ते नर प्राण समान मम जिन्ह कें द्विज पद प्रेम॥ 5-48-0॥

Saguna upāsaka parahita nirata nīti drha nema
Te nara prāṇa samāna mama jinha kē dvija pada prema

Śrī Rāma said to Vibhishan, "Those who worship My manifested Sagun form, do good to others, follow the path of dharma, remain steadfast in their vows, and are devoted to the feet of the Brahmanas, are dear to Me as My own Self."
